Charitable Corporation Connections Mid-January 2021

Happy New Year from the CPCC board!

Cheryl, Susan, L J, Jill, Liz, Janet, and Shari

We are thrilled to bring this newsletter directly to you, taking the pressure off your chapter president to forward it. If you are gobsmacked by what you read here, you will want to go to the member page at coloradopeo.org under the CPCC tab and find Charitable Corporation Connections to read previous newsletters. Pour a good cuppa because there's a lot of information there!

NEW YEAR

Chapter House Updates

A recent projection done by our auditing firm revealed that the money available for funding operating losses at the Chapter House will be exhausted sometime during FY 2023. That is one reason why we are converting two of the former overnight guest rooms into revenue-generating efficiency apartments (smaller than the one-bedroom and only $2200/month with the same amenities). Our efforts have been temporarily stalled while we deal with asbestos abatement necessary to perform these conversions but will be progressing again soon.

Despite our best efforts the coronavirus found its way into the CH over Christmas. A resident who had been in a rehab facility contracted the virus there. Fortunately, she has recovered, but has since moved from CH to a progressive care facility. She will be missed. Two exposed employees were quarantined at home for two weeks. Our employees have all remained Covid-19 negative after repeated testing.

The residents enjoyed a Christmas lights tour chauffeured by Bill, the House Manager. Half the fun and laughs resulted from getting in and out of his big SUV for the tour. Special Christmas gift baskets from the Chapter House Trustees were delivered to each resident, and Evelyn's chapter CE sisters performed a Christmas musical concert for the residents.

Many thanks to those who have called or emailed with questions for the CPCC board. Click here for FAQ with answers.

Speaking of knowing what's going on, we are starting a series of Zoom meetings on January 18th to discuss questions about all things CH/MF/CPCC. Of course, we are bound by P.E.O. circularization rules in answering your questions. We are doing these sessions in groups of 10-15 chapters. Before our annual meeting, every chapter will be invited. Attend and ask your questions! Be a Well-informed Winnie, not an Uninformed Ursula for voting at the CPCC annual meeting in June. If you are curious and want to join an early group, email Jill and ask!

Marguerite Fund

Our Marguerite Fund is currently sponsoring four recipients. Think about your friends, neighbors, teachers, church members, and people having difficulties during these trying economic times. Look for the application on the Colorado P.E.O. website. It's cleverly hidden in the CPCC tab under Marguerite Fund. Have questions? Click here
