so where there is no tale bearer, the strife ceaseth.

Chapter House

On June 5th, the CPCC membership voted to close the Chapter House and sell the property at 1819 W. Cheyenne Rd. Colorado Springs, CO 80906.

In the last newsletter we shared that our priority was to have a loving concern for the Chapter House Residents.

We are thrilled to share with you that all of the residents have found new homes and are excited to start a new adventure.

Are you passionate about the future direction of the Colorado P.E.O. Charitable Corporation (CPCC)?

Two openings have occurred on the CPCC Board of Directors and you have an opportunity to step up and apply to be a member of the CPCC. As a member of the CPCC you would have the chance to help in the direction that the membership voted at the recent Annual Meeting of the CPCC.

The Nominating Chairman, Susan Landers, PSPCSC is accepting application until August 1, 2021.

Your CPCC Board of Directors is working on a process to fairly, impartially and transparently manage the sale of the property. This includes the contents of the buildings.

The CPCC has what is best for the Sisterhood at the forefront as decisions are being made. The process will take time and all timely updates will be shared in the newsletter.

Currently a plan is in process to engage a real estate agent. Objectives have been set and criteria has been determined. A request for proposals is underway.

Be Happier

To be happier and less stressed, don't gossip.

We all fall short -- we listen to or contribute to gossip about others. It seems harmless in the moment, but it is damaging not only to the subject but also to our pursuit of possibilities. When we don't participate in gossip, it will not occur to us that anyone would be talking badly about us. But the minute we participate (even just listening to unnecessary or diminishing stories), we will start to consider what others think of us or that someone is talking badly about us.

One thing that holds us back from pursuing possibilities is what others think of us. So when we start spending our time and brain power worrying about what others are saying about us, then very simply, we are not going to be as productive or as happy as we could be.

So avoid gossip and you will be eliminating one source of stress and strife in your life. Most of it isn't true anyway-- it is just a tale told to make the teller feel better about him or herself. And we all know where dealing in half-truths will get us... nowhere. Just going in more circles.

THANK YOU!

Thanks to all of our sisters and friends who have linked their City Market and King Sooper purchases to the CPCC. When you associate your card with ES330 in the Kroger Community Rewards program, the company donates directly to CPCC.
